

Light glowing softly on the horizon guides sea turtle hatchlings to the ocean. Artificial light leads them landward and vulnerable to predators, dehydration and tires. If you can see your lights from the beach, they can too.

NO LIGHTS OUT!
MAY 1
OCT 31

TURN OFF or SHADE YOUR HOUSE, PORCH, CAR, STREET and PORTABLE LIGHTS BY 9 P.M.

Tybee Island Marine Science Center
912-786-5917 TybeeMarineScience.org